2. Residents movement outside more relaxed

From 24 June 2022 Ministry of Manpower (MOM) has

- a. Removed the requirement to submit the essential errands form for dormitory exit for all dormitory residents
- b. Exempt Special Pass holders residing in dormitories from the Popular Places requirement.

This means dormitory operators or employers are no longer required to submit the essential errands form to MOM for workers' exit from the dormitories for essential errands. This applies to all migrant workers and Special Pass holders residing in dormitories, and will take effect from 24 Jun 2022. The Special Pass Holders residing in dormitories will no longer need to fill in a manual form for an Exit Pass to visit the community and exempted from applying for a Popular Places Pass to visit the four designated popular locations on Sundays and public holidays.

From 24 June 2022

3. TV Slides promotion of Do's and Don'ts for STL residents

STL has prepared TV slides to be screen on STL TVs located in the general public area and the slides primarily reminds residents the dos and don'ts in STL namely for the following:

1. Wear face mask in shops and lifts
2. Smoking only in designated area
3. No cooking inside room
4. No washing of clothes in toilets
5. No eating meals in room
6. Keep room tidy and clean
7. Scan QR code using FWMOMCare

4. Singapore Flyers for STL residents

NGO itsRaining Raincoats has been organizing free trips for STL residents to Singapore Flyer. This started in May 2022 and it was also a response to the restriction imposed on migrant workers exiting the dormitory and traveling out to community places. With the lifting of the travel restriction, these Singapore Flyer free trip is no longer a scheduled event. However, the NGO would arrange such trip on case-by-case basis when employer approach them directly and request for it. Many of our residents have participated and enjoyed these outings and STL would like to put on record our appreciation of the NGO effort.
